(Excerpts)

"... a gifted musician who is able to bring the best sounds from several cultures into one type of intriguing music."

Folkworld

"Guitar renegade... Herriges always comes off as native maestro, never slumming dilettante. His technique on both guitar and bouzouki is formidable, his feel for diverse cultures exemplary."

Minneapolis Star Tribune

"It Plays Me is an album of amazing sounds... will mesmerize anyone who gives it a fair hearing."

Rambles

"A 'musician's musician's musician'... outrageously talented."

Wild Fruit Folk Music

"It was evident that people in attendance very much enjoyed your music. I loved the collaborative nature of your style... it demonstrates unity in diversity – Thanks!"

Sarah Ellerbusch

Harmony for Mayo Concert Series

Rochester, MN

"What an amazing performance! Greg, come back anytime! You made your guitar make sounds we never knew could be made! Even our own musician had no idea! Greg Herriges was a force to be reckoned with and we are so happy we were able to experience his music!"

Steve Linden

The Crescent Community Club

St. James, MN

"You are amazingly talented, and the international flavor of your music is always a refreshing treat!"

Johanna Kramer-Weston

Waterloo Center for the Arts

Waterloo, IA

"What an absolutely inspired concert! Thank you. ...you really create an almost orchestral sound: so very many layers and yet so much space between notes at the same time, wow."

Lani Richardson

Charlotte's Web

Rockford, IL

"You have a gift for relating to your audience. It is a special talent!"

Kathy Mattson
